

Eastern Europe

History of Eastern Europe from 1800-1948

Lecture Notes

Fall 2024

Contents

1	Week 2	5
1.1	Wolff - Inventing Eastern Europe	5
1.1.1	Pages 1-8	5
1.1.2	Pages 25-38	5
1.2	Magocsi - Ethnolinguistic Map	5
1.2.1	Pages 97-99	5
1.3	Nations and Nationalism As Concepts	5
1.3.1	Anderson Imagined Communities	5
1.3.2	Gellner Nations Nationalism	5
1.3.3	Judson Beyond Nations	5
1.4	Nationalism and Emancipation	5
1.4.1	Execution of Louis XVI	5
1.4.2	DECLARATION OF THE RIGHTS OF MAN AND CITIZEN	5
1.4.3	Napoleonic empire - 1812	6
1.4.4	Mazzini	6
1.5	National Rebirth	6
1.5.1	Fichte Love of Fatherland	6
1.5.2	Arndt German Fatherland	6

1. Week 2

1.1 Wolff - Inventing Eastern Europe

1.1.1 Pages 1-8

■ Definition 1.1.1

■ Example 1.1

1.1.2 Pages 25-38

Intersection

Linear map

Inverse image

1.2 Magocsi - Ethnolinguistic Map

1.2.1 Pages 97-99

■ Example 1.2

Theorem 1.2.1

1.3 Nations and Nationalism As Concepts

1.3.1 Anderson Imagined Communities

1.3.2 Gellner Nations Nationalism

1.3.3 Judson Beyond Nations

1.4 Nationalism and Emancipation

1.4.1 Execution of Louis XVI

1.4.2 DECLARATION OF THE RIGHTS OF MAN AND CITIZEN

- "I only say that (rights) cannot exist except as a consequence of duties fulfilled"

- "Each man looked after his own rights and the improvement of his own condition without seeking to provide for others" ... "(A war) in which those who had the means and were strong relentlessly crushed the weak or the unskilled."

1.4.3 Napoleonic empire - 1812

The Napoleonic code: set of laws that replaced the laws where Napoleon's empire stretched.

1.4.4 Mazzini

- Italian Revolutionary, always crushed, time in jail (exile)
- Wanted an unified Italian republic, this revolution would transform Italy and later Europe.
- If the condition of the populace has improved why then, "has the condition of the people not improved?"

1.5 National Rebirth

1.5.1 Fichte Love of Fatherland

1.5.2 Arndt German Fatherland